4. INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

- i. At any one time, at least two (2) or one-third (1/3), whichever is higher, of the Board members are Independent Directors as defined in Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad. The Directors must give effect to the spirit, intention and purpose of the definition.
- ii. The Independent Directors must ensure that the interests of all shareholders, and not only the interests of a particular fraction or group, are indeed taken into account by the Board and that the relevant issues are subjected to objective and impartial consideration by the Board.
- iii. The tenure of an Independent Director, unless approved by the shareholders for such further period, shall not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years. Prior to attaining the stipulated number of years, the Nomination Committee will consider the following and recommend to the Board accordingly:
 - (a) whether the Independent Director to continue to serve on the Board subject to his re-designation as a Non-Independent Director; or
 - (b) whether to seek shareholders' approval in order to retain him as an Independent Director.

If the Board continues to retain the Independent Director after the twelfth (12th) year, the Board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process in accordance with the recommendations of the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance.

- iv. Directors are expected to advise the Chairman immediately if they believe that they may no longer be independent.
- v. The Board undertakes to assess the independence of Independent Directors on an annual basis.

5. BOARD LEADERSHIP

- i. There are two (2) key tasks in Board leadership, namely the running of the Board and the executive responsibility for the running of the Company's business. There should be a clear division of responsibilities in the Board to ensure balance of power and authority, such that no one individual has unfettered powers of decision-making.
- ii. The Company is led by its Chairman with their roles distinct, separated and responsibilities clearly defined between them. The Chairman is responsible for ensuring the integrity and effectiveness of the governance process of the Board while the Managing Director leads the executive management and is responsible for the implementation of Company's policies and strategies besides overseeing and managing the day-to-day operations of the Company.

BOARD CHARTER

6. BOARD MEETINGS

- i. The Board will normally hold meetings at least four (4) times in each financial year and will hold additional meetings as the situation requires.
- ii. Directors will use their best endeavour to attend the Board Meetings. Directors are expected to prepare themselves thoroughly and to participate fully and constructively in Board discussions and other activities and to bring the benefit of their particular knowledge, skills and abilities to the Board.
- iii. The Board has sole authority over its agenda and exercises this through the Chairman. Any Director may, through the Chairman, request the addition of an item to the agenda. The Chairman in consultation with the Board and the Company Secretary will set the agenda.
- iv. Directors who are unable to attend the Board Meetings shall accordingly advise the Chairman, Managing Director and/or the Company Secretary on the same at the earliest time possible.
- v. Board discussions will be open and constructive, recognising that genuinely held differences of opinion could bring greater clarity and lead to better decisions. The Chairman will, nevertheless, seek a consensus of the Board but may, where considered necessary, call for a vote. All discussions and their record will remain confidential unless there is a specific direction from the Board to the contrary, or disclosure is required by law. Subject to legal or regulatory requirements, the Board will decide the manner and timing of the publication of its decisions.
- vi. Directors are expected to strictly observe confidentiality of Company information.

7. ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND ADVICE

- i. The Company aims to provide all Directors with timely and quality information and in a form and manner appropriate for them to discharge their duties effectively.
- ii. The Management is responsible for providing the Board with the required information in an appropriate and timely manner. The Chairman, assisted by the Company Secretary, assesses the type of information required to be provided to the Board. If the information provided by the Management is insufficient, the Board will make further enquiries where necessary to which the persons responsible will respond as fully and promptly as possible.
- iii. The full agenda and comprehensive Board papers are disseminated to all Directors in advance of meetings to enable them to prepare for the meetings.
- iv. Full Board minutes of each Board meeting are kept by the Company Secretary and are available for inspection by any Director during office hours.

BOARD CHARTER

- v. The Board meeting papers provided to the Directors include progress reports on business operations, financial results, information on business propositions, industry outlook, operational and regulatory compliance matters, corporate proposals besides minutes of meeting of Board Committees and Management. For corporate proposals deemed material and price-sensitive, supporting papers would be circulated to the Directors during the Board meeting.
- vi. At Board meetings, the Management presents and provides explanation on the reports provided. Senior Management and Consultants may be invited to attend the Board meetings to advise or give detailed explanation and clarification on relevant agenda items to enable the Board to make informed decisions. Any Director who has a direct and/or indirect interest in the subject matter to be deliberated on shall abstain from deliberation and voting on the same.
- vii. Directors are entitled to have access, at all reasonable times, to all relevant Company information and to Management and have at least two (2) private sessions in a year with the external auditors.
- viii. The Directors, whether as full Board or individual capacity, may seek independent professional advice in furtherance of their duties. If such advice is considered necessary, it shall be first discussed with the Chairman and having done so, shall be free to proceed. Subject to the prior approval of the Chairman, the cost of the advice will be reimbursed by the Company but the Directors will ensure, so far as is practicable, that the cost is reasonable.
- ix. The Directors have unlimited access to the professional advice and services of the Company Secretary.

8. COMPANY SECRETARY

- i. The Board appoints the Company Secretary and ensures that the Company Secretary fulfils the functions for which he/she has been appointed.
- ii. The appointment and removal of Company Secretary is a matter for the Board as a whole.
- iii. The Secretary is responsible for ensuring that Board procedures are followed, that the applicable rules and regulations for the conduct of the affairs of the Board are complied with and for all matters associated with the maintenance of the Board or otherwise required for its efficient operation.
- iv. The Board recognises the fact that the Company Secretary of the Company is suitably qualified and competent in carrying out the duties required.

9. BOARD COMMITTEES

- i. Board Committees will be formed only when it is necessary to facilitate efficient decision-making.

BOARD CHARTER

- ii. Board Committees will observe the same rules of conduct and procedure as the Board unless the Board determines otherwise.
- iii. The Board of the Company has appointed the following Board Committees with specific terms of reference:
 - Audit Committee
 - Nomination Committee
 - Remuneration Committee
 - Risk Management Committee
- iv. Independent and Non-Executive Directors of the Company play a leading role in these Committees. The Management is co-opted to the Committees as and when required.
- v. The Board Committees consider particular issues and recommend proposed actions to the Board. The Chairman of the respective Committees will report on the decisions and/or recommendations made by the Committee to the Board. The Minutes of all Board Committees are made available to the Board.
- vi. The terms of reference of each Committee appointed by the Board are available for reference at the Company's website at www.intabina.com.

10. BOARD APPOINTMENTS

- i. The appointment of new Directors is a matter for consideration and decision by the Board upon recommendation from the Nomination Committee. The Board may utilise independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.
- ii. New Directors are expected to have such expertise so as to qualify them to make a positive contribution to the Board performance or its duties and to give sufficient time and attention to the affairs of the Company.
- iii. The Board has never practiced nor allowed gender biasness as they believe that the ability and capability of an individual should be the priority to place in appointing a director.
- iv. The Board designates the Chair of the Nomination Committee as the Senior Independent Director of the Company who shall be an intermediary for other Directors (when necessary) and the point of contact for shareholders and other stakeholders.

11. BOARD COMMITMENT

- i. Any Director of the Company, while holding office, is at liberty to accept other Board appointments so long as the appointment is not in conflict with the business and does not affect his performance as a director. This must be subsequently notified to the Chairman.

BOARD CHARTER

- ii. The Directors are guided by the requirements of the Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad on attendance of at least 50% of Board Meetings held in a financial year and that directorships held by any Board member at any one time shall not exceed five (5) in listed companies.

12. BOARD TRAINING AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- i. In addition to the Mandatory Accreditation Programme as required by Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad, the Directors are encouraged to attend various training programmes and to participate in site visits at business locations to constantly update their knowledge as well as enhance their skills. This will enable Directors to effectively discharge their duties and keep abreast with industrial sector issues, developments in the industry and global market, management strategies and regulatory laws, rules as well as guidelines and which are relevant to the Company's operations and business.
- ii. The training needs of the Directors will be reviewed by the Nomination Committee on a regular basis to ensure that they are acquainted with the latest development and changing environment within which the Company operates.

13. BOARD CODE OF CONDUCT

- i. The Board commits itself and its Directors to ethical, business like, and lawful conduct, including proper use of authority and appropriate decorum when acting as Board members. Accordingly, the Directors are required to observe the following at all times:
 - (a) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Company as a whole.
 - (b) use due care and diligence in fulfilling the functions of office and exercising the powers attached to that office.
 - (c) use the powers of office for a proper purpose, in the best interests of the Company as a whole.
 - (d) recognise that the primary responsibility is to the Company's shareholders as a whole but should, where appropriate, have regard for the interest of all stakeholders of the Company.
 - (e) must not make improper use of information acquired as a director.
 - (f) must not take improper advantage of the position of director.
 - (g) must not allow personal interests, or the interests of any associated person, to conflict with the interests of the Company.
